Dear Eric:

Enclosed is your copy of $ EL SIGNO DE PESOS
by Alvaro J Moreno.

Mr. Moreno asked for whom did I want this copy.
Now he ask that you send him a letter "because
I am very interested in keep in my private file
the highly esteemed opinion of every one who have my modest essay."

Mr. Moreno made no charge.

I did not get away as soon as I had planned on account of the illness of a friend. Now I plan to leave next Monday the 11th going directly to Philadelphia.

Sincerely yours

Dear Ruth:

Thank you, so much, for the congratulations. I was very pleased and surprised.

The IBNS meeting was very stimulating and you certainly have quite a group of characters to contend with.

I am sending you a copy of the letter I have written to Ed Shleiker.

Incidentally, if you will look through your note book, I think you will find a 1, 2 and 10 pesos note in the note book as these were part of the papers I put in. I do not need them until you return.

Have a wonderful time and call me at your first opportunity after you are back.

Sincerely,

Dear Eric:

Many thanks for the Confederate note information. At least one of these I should have found for myself without taking up your time. Will try to do better.

We would very much like an article from you for our Journal. Especially for our foreign members I feel we should publish an occasional article on U.S.

Your friend Dr. Fuld and Mrs Cohen are married.

With appreciation for all your help

Sincerely yours

Dear Bud:

I was out of town most of last week or you would have had this note sooner.

Eric Newman and I enjoyed our visit with you. We were both surprised and pleased to see the original Manchester Bank. It is amazing to find a land mark like it so well preserved. I am looking forward to the day when it will be a part of the present Manchester complex.

Should you want an further information on the Money Museum idea we are both available.

Thank you for bringing Dr. Davidson to see me. I am looking forward to seeing him on his next visit to St. Louis.

Eric joins me in saying thank you for a delightful visit.

Sincerely yours

MEMORANDUM

TO Mrs. Ruth Hill

FROM Eric P. Newman

Dear Ruth,

I believe the forms you enclosed were issued by the Treasury Department as receipts for the sequestration of assets of Italians as War enemies. They cover bonds. One form has five serial numbers for the bonds. I therefore do not believe these are money in any way but merely Italian bond receipts.

All matters are being returned.

Sincerely,

EPN/atb

these documents?

January 23, 1973

Dear Eric:

Costs are as follows: 10,000 - $75/M; 25,000 - $65/M; 50,000 - $60/M. We expect to order 10,000, 5,000 for our needs and the rest hopefully picked-up by people such as your friend. I would appreciate an answer at your earliest convenience so that we can place our definite order.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Leslie:

Mrs. Ruth Hill will buy 3,000 envelopes and I will buy 1,000 envelopes, all to be sent to me.

I will make my 1,000 envelopes available to her or to the Society if either runs short. I have no immediate plans for using mine.

Thanks for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Hill:

I am a Ph.D. candidate in American history at Claremont Graduate School and request assistance in locating a numismatist who may know the whereabouts of certain missing documents important to my doctoral dissertation. About 1954, Jacob Newman Spiro, a numismatist of Maplewood, New Jersey, possessed two warrants, dated 17 and 20 August 1748, that had been issued by Robert Hunter Morris, the chief justice of colonial Jew Jersey. (Source: Professor Kenneth Scott, Counterfeiting in Colonial Pennsylvania, New York, 1955, pp. 60, 64, and notes 21, 28, and 29 at same). These warrants authorized spacious powers of search towards the arrests of John McNeal, Jacobus Vanetta, John Kinney, and some twenty other accused counterfeiters. I wish to acquire duplicates of these manuscripts in connection with my doctoral dissertation on the origins of the right against unreasonable search and seizure, 597-1791.

Mr. Spiro is now deceased. Mr. Herbert Ochs, Spiro's son-in-law, however, believes that John Connors, now deceased, of Plainfield, New Jersey, became the next owner. Professor Scott examined these warrants some twenty-five years ago but informs me that he does not know who now has them. Mr. Philip Parks, of the International Bank Note Society, however, has suggested that you might possess information concerning the present owner of Morris' vanished warrants, and I accordingly contact you in that light.

Sincerely,

William J. Cuddihy

Dear Mrs. Hill:

It is very good of you to reply so promptly to my offer concerning your scrapbooks and I am happy to learn that you will consider the Society's library as a future repository for this collection. I trust, though, that for sometime, you will be in the "books everywhere" state of moving into the new residence that Eric described to me in July.

Finding space for the shelving of books is certainly a problem with which we are familiar. That is why the concept of moveable shelving is of such interest to us. It is a system whereby only one open aisle serves several banks of shelving units. The position of the open aisle is adjusted by moving whole shelving banks as needed, made possible by a mechanical-assist feature which is the heart of the system.

The plan, as developed by our Librarian, Frank Campbell, not only greatly increases our total shelf space but it also incorporates an excellent security feature. The adjacent banks of shelving can be locked to prevent unauthorized access, providing us with an excellent means of according lock security for valuable property, particularly our rarer auction catalogues and pamphlets. Library security, as you can well imagine, has become of great concern to us with the rapid escalation in the prices paid for numismatic publications.

The complete Moveable Shelving System, tailored to our specifications, will cost $31,000, which is a fair price for the quality product and workmanship which we insist on.

We would be honored to have your help in meeting this expense. It is often the case that a significant seed gift encourages others to participate as well. We would, of course, comply with your instruction to treat such a gift anonymously. Frank Campbell and I would welcome the opportunity to discuss the project with you at greater length if you so desire.

Mrs. Adolph B. Hill, Jr.

I am glad to read that you are planning to attend the NYINC; we are invited to have our ANS information table again this year and so I shall spend a good deal of time there myself.

Best regards from all of us here; Eric's gang must by now be in the "swamps."

Dear Eric:

The following is a list of the Kenya notes I need:

1st Issue 1966 - 1968 : 50 and 100 shillings dated 1-7-1966

2nd Issue 1969 - 1974 : 20, 50 and 100 shillings - any date
during this period

3rd Issue 1974 - 1980: 100 dated 1-9-1978 without " ONE HUNDRED SHILLINGS" on face

4th issue 1981 - need all

If possible I would like to know the names of the various signers, their titles and period of time each was in office.

Re: Ruth Hill Estate

Dear Ms. Chouinard:

Your letter of February 27, 1995 enclosed two computer print outs for Ruth's paper money data, one of 9 pages called Algeria 2 and one of 15 pages called Argentina Part 3 of 4.

Her Algeria data covers all paper money issues of that country with the serial numbers of notes in her collection inserted at appropriate places in the list. What the 2 stands for I do not know as Algeria is the third country alphabetically.

Her Argentina data covers only the paper money issues of that country between the years 1908 and 1962 with the serial numbers of notes in her collection inserted at appropriate places in the list. There should be a part 4 covering the period after 1962 and there may or may not be parts 1 and 2 which are earlier than 1908 and covers a period of notes she may not have any of.

I suggest that you obtain a print out of all countries beginning with A. Then I believe her system will become clearer.

Austria may turn out to be large because of city issues of World War I but we should be aware of it. Of course, you can omit repeating what you have already sent.

I hope this is helpful.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman
